

God's Grace is Sufficient

In God's holy word, so clearly we read,
His grace is sufficient to meet every need.
And great is it's comfort when brought into view,
When trials come on us, as often they do.

In times of affliction, it's to Him we flee,
We come in submission, and bending the knee.
In His gracious hands we become softened clay,
Prepared for remolding, as humbly we pray.

It's heartache and sorrow, and yes, even pain,
The great Potter uses for our spiritual gain.
Whatever the hardships encountered each day
They're used to conform us to His will and way.

Our Lord He upholds as we go through it all,
His strong arm supposting in case we should fall.
And that truth which we simply believed for so long,
Now bursts from our hearts praising God with a song.

For those written words on the pages we see
Become now to me, a reality –
I now know more fully what it's all about ...
God's Grace Is Sufficient, of that there's no doubt!

for my strength is made perfect in weakness.”
