

The New Day

Another day is dawning, the night is coming fast,
The twilight is upon us, the day will soon be past,
But we are looking onward, to God's eternal day,
When sorrows will be over, and we are caught away.

There will be no more weeping, earth's tears forever o're,
But endless bliss is waiting on that eternal shore,
We stand beside an open grave, and lay a loved one low,
Our Saviour's face they're seeing, with their own face aglow.

What will it be that morning, when freed from sin and shame,
To be forever with Him, and praise His blessed Name,
To join angelic chorus, in rapturous song proclaim,
The Lamb of God exalted, the theme of heavenly strain.

The pains of earth forever gone and this sad earth is past,
Have bodies free from illness, to be at home at last.
O Lord now haste the dawning, of heaven's eternal day,
Till then we'll work for Jesus, and watch and wait and pray.

Rowan Jennings
31 Dec. 2020

Goes to the tune: Stand Up Stand Up For Jesus