A Partial Compiling Of The Ways In Which The Work Of Our Lord Is Presented in The Scriptures

Readings

1 Corinthians 15

1 Peter 3:16

Introduction

There is no greater subject and ought to be no greater joy to the saints of God than to muse on the sacred mystery of the sufferings and work of the Lord at Calvary. Yet this can become so “routine” in our conversations that we fail to see the richness and majesty of it.

- a) A death can be viewed as a demise, passing, loss of life, murder, assassination, execution, accident, the grim reaper, and God’s loud speaker, and while they all have the same result, yet by the word different avenues of understanding is impressed on the mind. For instance, a person who is assassinated has a different connotation than a person who is murdered.
- b) When we muse on the death of the Lord, God does not just view it as a death, but uses multiple words to convey its many truths to us.
- c) The following tabulation is to be used as a springboard for gospel or ministry meetings.

The Various Ways The Scriptures Present The Work Of The Lord

In summary, the work of the Lord is viewed as:

Reference	Concept	Quotation
Eph. 1:7	A redemptive work	“In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace” (Col. 1:14; Heb. 9:12; Rev. 5:9)
1 Jn. 1:7	A cleansing work	“But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin”
Rom. 5:10	A reconciling work	“For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life”
Rom. 3:25	A propitiatory work	“Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God”
Lk. 7:42	A payment of debt	“And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both”
Gal. 2:20	A substitutionary work	“I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me”
Rom. 5:9	A justifying work	“Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him”
Isa. 53:5	A healing work	“With His stripes we are healed”
Isa. 53:5	A wounding	“He was wounded for our transgressions”
